10. System and rules of play, time control:

Jan Macieja Memorial

A single tournament for all players, Swiss system, 11 rounds, time rate G-3'+2" (3 minutes for the game for each player with a 2-second increment per move).

The order of places for players with the same score

Tie-break criteria:

- a) Buchholz cut-1
- b) Buchholz
- c) number of victories
- d) progressive score
- e) drawing of lots

Remarks:

- A player can be late for the game and start it before the time on his/her clock expires.
- A player forfeiting a game will be excluded from the tournament unless he/she presents a justification before the end of the round.
- FIDE Laws of Chess (Appendix B: Blitz including B.4) are applied in the tournament.
- Players can possess electronic devices if they are completely turned off.

Miguel Najdorf Memorial

A, B and C tournaments: Swiss system, 9 rounds.

Time rate:

A, B and C groups: 90 min. for 40 moves + 30 min. for the rest of the game, with an increment of 30 seconds per move starting from move 1.

Tie-break criteria:

- a) Buchholz cut-1
- b) Buchholz
- c) number of victories
- d) progressive score
- e) drawing of lots

Actual FIDE rules will be applied in all tournaments.

Remarks:

1. A player who arrives at the round more than 30 minutes after the start of the round loses his/her game by forfeit.
2. A player forfeiting a game will be excluded from the tournament unless he/she presents a justification by the end of the round.
3. The Festival is a tournament minding to keep the image of chess as a model of a fair competition. Significant violations of ethics and principles of sportsmanship will not be tolerated. To protect players from unfair behaviour of other participants of the event, according to FIDE recommendations, the Chief Arbiter shall:
 - a) declare a game lost by both players if he is sure the result of the game was pre-arranged. The evaluation of the evidence of the collusion remains at the discretion of the Chief Arbiter;
 - b) order, in agreement with the Director of the Festival, a search of a player and his belongings if there is a justified suspicion that the player may be using forbidden assistance from an electronic device or a third party.
4. A complete ban of access to mobile phones is applied at the tournament. A player may have his/her mobile phone, completely turned off, in his/her bag, which must not be picked up and walked with, or in his/her jacket, which shall remain hanged on the player's chair throughout the whole game.

A player having an electronic device (particularly mobile phone) in a pocket of his/her clothes or with him/her in another way (on a belt etc.) when playing, loses the game. The organizer provides for random inspections of electronic devices in the playing room and outside the playing room, e.g. in the toilets, corridor of the playing venue etc.

The same restrictions concern smart watches and similar devices.
